The Brown Act: California's Open Government Law

By: Sandra J. Levin
Executive Director, LA Law Library

LALAWLIBRARY

“Government ought to be all outside and no inside.”

Pres. Woodrow Wilson

LALAWLIBRARY

Purpose of the Brown Act

To ensure that almost all aspects of the decision-making process of legislative bodies of local agencies are conducted in public and open to public scrutiny.

Open and Public

“All meetings of the legislative body of a local agency shall be open and public, and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting of the legislative body of a local agency, except as provided in this chapter.”

Why Us?

“Local agency” includes any city, county, district “or other local public agency” GC §54951

[Note: the Bagley-Keene Act exempts anyone required to comply with the Brown Act.]

LALAWLIBRARY

What Is a Legislative Body?

Governing Body – City Council, Board of Supervisors

Any committee or commission created by formal action of the Governing Body – by resolution or minute action or other vote taken

Any committee created by a committee GC §54952

Exception!

The Brown Act does NOT apply to ad hoc committees:

an advisory committee of less than a quorum of members without continuing subject matter jurisdiction

(Does apply to Standing Committees – continuing subject matter jurisdiction OR fixed meeting schedule)

What if...?

City Council of 5 appoints:

- FY 2015 budget subcommittee of 3
- FY 2015 budget subcommittee of 2
- Finance subcommittee of 2
- Citizen committee to develop a strategic plan for traffic reduction

The City Manager appoints:

- Citizen committee to develop a strategic plan for traffic reduction

The Mayor appoints:

- A finance committee of 2

Private Entities Too!

Private board, LLC, or other entity that:

- Is created by the governing body; OR
- Receives funds and a designated member from the legislative body

What's a Meeting?

“Any congregation of a majority of the members of a legislative body at the same time and place, to hear, discuss, or deliberate upon any item that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body or the local agency to which it pertains.”

LALAWLIBRARY

More on definition of “meeting”

Also prohibited:

Any use of a series of communications of any kind, directly or through intermediaries, to discuss, deliberate, or take action on any item of business that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body.

LALAWLIBRARY

Serial Meetings

Daisy Chain

Hub and Spoke

Email: No member of a legislative body should e-mail a majority of members of the same legislative body about any item that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body or of the City.

LALAWLIBRARY

Serial Briefings

One-way transmission of information:

- By staff for review by board members
- Orally or in writing
- E.g., memorandum from attorney

Caveat: Staff cannot act as a go between to share views from one member to another. Passive receipt only is best policy.

Practical Advice to Legislative Bodies:

“Live so that you wouldn’t be ashamed to sell the family parrot to the town gossip.”

Will Rogers

LALAWLIBRARY

Exceptions to the Meeting Definition

Individual Contacts

Conferences (open to public; of general interest)

Community Meetings (not initiated by the local agency)

Meetings of another Legislative Body (open & noticed)

Attendance at a standing committee meeting (observer only)

Purely Social or Ceremonial Occasions

What if...?
