Lawyers in the Library Free Consultations

This program provides free 10-20 minute consultations with volunteer lawyers for people who have legal problems to discuss but do not have a lawyer representing them.

REGISTRATION: By appointment only.
Register here: www.lalawlibrary.org/litl. Consultations will be either in person or by telephone. We can address a broader range of issues telephonically than in-person. Request whichever you prefer and we will schedule depending on the availability of lawyers with expertise on your requested topic.

Remember to organize and have with you all related documents, forms and court papers! Come prepared with all questions written down: time is limited.

IN PERSON: Consultations take place at:
LA Law Library-Main Branch
301 W. First Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012

Notice: Arrive early! Downtown parking and traffic can be challenging and our attorneys are generally fully scheduled. If you are late, we may not be able to provide you a consultation.

BY PHONE: Phone-in instructions provided prior to appointment.

Registration fee: FREE

NOTE:

- Each person is allowed two consultations per calendar year.
- This program is not a substitute for legal representation.
- Attorneys will provide advice about filling out forms but will not fill out your forms.

LA Law Library does not provide legal advice: LA Law Library provides legal resources and assistance with legal research as an educational service. The Law Library is pleased to offer our patrons the opportunity to obtain assistance from third party legal service providers at this and other events within the Library. However, the Library does not control and is not responsible for the content or scope of any assistance given by those providers.
