When, Why & How to Settle a Civil Case

Thursday, October 25, 2018 | 1:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

More than 90% of civil cases settle or are dismissed prior to trial, yet most litigants spend very little time thinking about whether or how to settle their cases. Learn when settlement makes sense, what resource sand tools are available to you and how to negotiate effectively to get the best possible result without having to go to trial.

Taught by seasoned attorneys with extensive settlement experience.

Class Covers:

- How to frame your case in the best light
- Whether settlement makes sense for your case
- The role of a settlement officer or mediation
- How to prepare for a negotiation
- How to negotiate effectively
- When to make an offer
- How to decide what is a fair result
- Documenting your settlement so you are protected

Stay Out of Housing Court: Mediation Program

Saturday, October 27, 2018 | 3:45 p.m. – 4:45 p.m.

Mediation is a voluntary process and will only take place if both agree. It is a confidential process where the terms of discussion are not disclosed to any party outside the mediation hearing. Learn how to use mediation to negotiate a landlord-tenant dispute before the case goes to trial. This workshop is for landlords and tenants.
