ABOUT U.S. IMMIGRATION LAW

ASIAN AMERICANS ADVANCING JUSTICE | LOS ANGELES

Where does immigration law come from?

- Legislative: the main source of immigration law
- Executive: decides how to implement or enforce immigration law
- Judicial: decides how to interpret immigration law

Implementation of Immigration Law

Crimes and Deportability

Admissibility (INA § 212)

Not lawfully admitted to the US:

- Crime involving moral turpitude
- Controlled substance
- Reason to believe the noncitizen is a drug trafficker
- Prostitution
- National security grounds

Removability (INA § 237)

- Controlled substance
- Aggravated felony
- Crime of domestic violence/child abuse
- Firearms offenses

Current Enforcement Priorities

- January 25, 2017 Executive Order: “Enhancing Public Safety in the Interior of the United States”
- The executive order prioritizes immigrants who:
 - Have been convicted of ANY criminal offense
 - Have pending criminal charges
 - Have committed acts that would be a crime (including unlawful entry to the United States)
 - Have committed fraud before a government agency
 - Have abused public benefits programs
 - Have a final order of removal
 - Are deemed to be a “risk to public safety or national security” by an immigration officer

ICE Directives

- Feb 21, 2017 Enforcement and Removal Operations (ERO) Memo
 - Effective immediately, EROs will take enforcement actions against all removable aliens encountered in the course of their duties
 - Under the terms of the Executive Order, DHS will no longer exempt classes or categories of removable aliens from potential enforcement

DACA Rescission September 5, 2017

- On September 5, 2017 DHS began the “phase out” of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program.
- No new DACA initial applications, or advance parole for DACA recipients, will be processed. Limited DACA renewals were accepted until October 5, 2017.

Know Your Rights!

LEARN HOW TO PROTECT YOU AND YOUR FAMILY
DURING IMMIGRATION RAIDS

Some people who are not United States citizens have been arrested or detained by the U.S. government.

Learn how to protect yourself so this does not happen to you!

POLICE ENCOUNTERS GENERALLY

There are three main stages of law enforcement encounters:

1. Casual / Conversation – No obligation to the officer, free to leave. May ask the purpose of questioning.
1. Detention – A stop, but not an arrest. Officer can ask for information about your identity but you cannot be arrested for not showing ID (depends on state). Police needs “probable cause” in order to arrest you, but only “reasonable suspicion” to stop and question, or to stop and perform certain searches in the case of automobiles.
1. Arrest – If the officer has evidence against you, you can be arrested on suspicion of a crime or immigration violation. This is when the officer has proof or “probable cause” for believing that you commit an illegal act. You have the right to remain silent and the right to request an attorney before answering questions. You are subject to search of your person or automobile.

IF YOU ARE QUESTIONED BY POLICE...

- You have the right to ask the officer if you are being arrested or detained.
 - If NO, ask the officer if you may leave. When the officer says that you may leave, slowly and calmly walk away.
 - If YES... assert your rights. You have the right to remain silent and the right to an attorney.
- If you are undocumented and being arrested or detained...
 - DO NOT answer any questions or say only “I need to speak to my lawyer”.
 - Show valid immigration documents if you have them.
 - DO NOT carry papers from another country.
 - DO NOT answer any questions about where you were born or how you entered the U.S.

Show them your Know Your Rights Card!
DO NOT LIE OR SHOW FALSE DOCUMENTS

IF IMMIGRATION COMES...

TO YOUR HOME

- You have the right to see a warrant. Officers do not have the right to enter your home without a search warrant, signed by a federal or superior court judge. Administrative ICE arrest warrants do not give officers the right to enter a home or private building.
- Do not open the door. If you let ICE inside, they can stay.
 - Slip the warrant underneath the door.
 - Request for names and badge numbers of the officers and say that you did not “consent” to a search.
 - Also get names and contact information of witnesses.

TO YOUR WORK

- Officer needs a warrant signed by a judge or employer’s permission to enter the workplace. BUT if someone lets them in, they may stay.
- They do not need a warrant if it is a public place.
- Stay calm. Do not run.

IF YOU WITNESS AN IMMIGRATION RAID...

- IF YOU CAN DO SO SAFELY, RECORD WHAT IS HAPPENING
 - Take photos, video, document and report raids and arrests
 - Obtain the names and phone numbers of any witnesses
 - Share information about the raid with your co-workers; contact your union official
 - If ICE agents or police enter without a warrant, report them
- TO REPORT A RAID
 - Contact United We Dream's hotline at 1-844-363-1423 or text 877877.
 - Report any incidents of raids or abuses / mistreatment by ICE, police or border patrol officers.

IF YOU ARE ARRESTED...

- FIND OUT WHO ARRESTED YOU
 - Name of officer & agency (Police Dept., FBI, ICE, County Sheriff...)
 - I.D. numbers, license plate numbers
- DON'T SIGN ANY DOCUMENTS BEFORE SPEAKING WITH A LAWYER
 - You always have the right to speak to a lawyer
 - Do not get tricked into signing anything
- CONTACT YOUR ATTORNEY OR A FAMILY MEMBER
 - Right to a phone call. Memorize important phone numbers (attorney, family member, union spokesperson)
- CONTACT YOUR CONSULATE (FOREIGN NATIONALS)
- ASK FOR BOND

IF YOU ARE ACCUSED OF A CRIME...

- ASK AN ATTORNEY TO HELP YOU GET RELEASED FROM POLICE CUSTODY
 - Must be charged with a crime within 48 hours, or else release you.
 - If the police does file criminal charges, you need to be released if 1) charges are dropped 2) you are granted and post bail 3) you win your criminal case, or 4) you complete your sentence.
- IF YOU HAVE BEEN ACCUSED OF A CRIME
 - Consult with an immigration attorney to make sure that the crime will not affect your immigration status. This includes applying for naturalization or obtaining a green card.
- IF YOU ARE FACING DEPORTATION & YOU NEED AN ATTORNEY
 - Find an attorney who specializes in deportation defense.
 - Ask for a copy of the written contract with your attorney before payment.

DEVELOP A SAFETY PLAN

- MAKE A PLAN OF ACTION WITH YOUR CO-WORKERS
 - Talk with co-workers to see if they are willing to make a collective decision that everyone-regardless of their immigration status- will remain silent and ask to speak with an attorney in the event of a workplace raid.
- KNOW WHAT DOCUMENTS YOU SHOULD CARRY WITH YOU
 - Carry a card with the contact information of your immigration attorney and/or union representative.
 - Carry a card indicating that you wish to remain silent.
- MAKE A PLAN TO TAKE CARE OF YOUR FAMILY
 - If you have children or elderly relatives, decide who will take care of them and keep their phone numbers. In CA you can make a caregiver's affidavit to identify that person.
 - Designate someone you trust with Power of Attorney to make financial, legal or child care decisions if you are detained.

SAFETY PLAN PT. 2

- FIND AN IMMIGRATION ATTORNEY

- Find someone who specializes in deportation defense who can represent you. Memorize their name and phone number.
- Have names & phone numbers of several good immigration attorneys posted near the telephone at home

- HAVE A COPY OF ALL IMMIGRATION DOCUMENTS

- Keep copies of all immigration documents filed with immigration with a friend or family member you trust.
- Collect birth certificates, marriage certificates, and passports; Keep them in a safe place that your family can access.
- Make a list of names & contact info of any lawyer that has ever represented you
