OCTOBER 21 - 25

LIVE ZOOM & IN-PERSON: Habitability and TAHO Complaint Process

Monday, October 21, 2024 | 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

CLASS WILL BE HELD IN-PERSON AND VIA ZOOM

Under California law, your landlord must keep your home "habitable," which means kept in a condition that is suitable for humans to live in safely and free of major defects. Additionally, the City of Los Angeles passed a law – the Tenant Anti-Harassment Ordinance (TAHO) - in 2021 giving tenants new rights against harassment. The anti-harassment law lists a number of actions that could constitute harassment, including: failing to perform necessary repairs; taking away services provided in the lease; attempting to coerce a tenant to move-out; threatening physical harm or refusing to accept payment of rent.

Learn what to do about uninhabitable rental housing conditions and how to file a complaint under the L.A. City Tenant Anti-Harassment Ordinance (TAHO).

Class covers:

- Landlords' and Tenants' responsibilities for habitability and repairs
- Who to contact for habitability complaints
- How to report violations of the LA City Rent Stabilization Ordinance (RSO)
- What constitutes tenant harassment
- How to file a complaint under the Tenant Anti-Harassment Ordinance (TAHO)
- Where to get help
